DENNIS NEW MAYOR ON APRIL 27

Marin Man, 42, New JESD Chief

$14,500, 4-YEAR CONTRACT

Richard L. Foster Will Succeed Weibel

A new superintendent, Richard LeRoy Foster, 42, of 63 Almenar drive, San Rafael, was hired Monday night for Jefferson Elementary School District by the board of trustees. His four-year contract calls for $14,500 a year.

Foster takes over the job from H. Z. Weibel, who, when his contract ends on June 30, will have concluded eight years in the post..

Weibel will remain in the district as an advisor until next January when he is expected to be named principal in one of the three schools now under construction.

Foster is presently assistant superintendent of educational services in the Marin County Schools at San Rafael. At the same time, he is holding a position as an assistant professor at San Francisco State College.

He received his educational training at Macalester College, St. Paul, Minn., where he earned his bachelor of arts degree. From there he did graduate work and was awarded a teaching credential at University of Minnesota.

Then he went to the University of California at Los Angeles for a master's degree in education and is presently working on a doctorate there.

During this time he gained a wide range of professional experience throughout teaching assignments on the junior high and high school levels.

From 1946 to 1956, most of his activities were centered in Santa Monica, where he taught in the high school, the adult division of Santa Monica City College and served as dean of boys at John Adams Junior High School there.

For a semester in 1954 he went to Santa Ana as director of instruction.

Foster came to Marin in this same capacity in August of 1956. Since that time he has occupied the post of superintendent for the schools of that county from 1958 to January

WSIA DEMANDS CITY 'SWITCH' RESERVOIR SITE

Upon the mandate of some 15 Unit No. 9 homeowners, residing west of Skyline and at the south end of Westlake, the Westlake Improvement Association is preparing to challenge the proposed site of a giant reservoir in the area.

WSIA President Emory Schoolcraft was unanimously empowered to name a five-man committee to carry the issue to the Daly City Council and farther, if necessary, to stop construction of a structure which area residents strongly feel will be "a danger to life."

Named to serve, following an open homeowners' protest hearing, were WSIA Directors M. A. MacLean and McRobert Stewart, residents Lt. Col. Rufus McCracken, 813 Skyline drive; Warrant Officer Byron Smith, 53 Oceanside drive, and W. L. Garver, 809 Skyline drive.

"Almost all of us had been told that the proposed site of the area was not suitable for any type of building when we purchased our home," declared McCracken while charging there had been misrepresentation.

"No one suspected a reservoir would be built, especially in this area—20 to 30 feet from my home and almost as close to the home of Captain Sloan.

"If any of us had known a reservoir was going to be built

John Evangelisti Third Candidate In Trustee Race

A race in the May 19 trustee elections for the Jefferson Elementary School District has widened with the addition of John Evangelisti Jr. to the list of candidates.

Evangelisti is a 27-year-old state auditor who lives at 523 Wyandotte avenue with his wife and two children. They moved here from San Francisco two years ago.

In a statement to the newspaper Mrs. Evangelisti said her husband is running for the post due to his interest in civic affairs. He will be opposing incumbent Joseph Lewkowitz and W. Donald Lesher.

A new development arose in the San Mateo Junior College situation when Mrs. Laura Johnson, 215 Klamath street, Brisbane, filed to run against Mrs. Eleanor Nettle.

Mrs. Johnson feels the north county area should have more representation on the board.

No changes have cropped up in other races. Jefferson High School District still has only James Cooper, Sharp Park, as the lone candidate.

Filing deadline for all trustee races is Friday, April 17.

Sonic Boom Shatters Plate Glass Window At DC Beauty Shop

A shattered window at the Patio Beauty Salon, 204-A School street, is said to be the result of another sonic boom Tuesday morning.

Daly City police investigated and found that a six-foot by eight-foot plate glass window was broken.

According to the salon's owner, Daniel Giosso, it will cost $112 to replace the glass.

High School Board To Hire Fourteen New Teachers Here

Fourteen more new teachers for the 1959-60 school year will be hired by Jefferson High School District trustees next Monday night at their regular meeting. Site is 375 South Mayfair and the time is 7:30 o'clock.

The district already has hired three of 19 new teachers needed. In addition, four more teachers will be needed before this July to fill resignation vacancies.

Fourteen of the new teachers will be assigned to Westmoor, Morgan said.

ALL-TIME RECORD

New Building Here In March $3.9 Million!

An all-time high was reached last month in Daly City building permits. Otis Calhoun, public works director, reports that 243 new dwelling permits issued during March totaled $3,404,414 in valuation.

This beats the previous record set in February, 1956 of $2,781,178 and the previous second high reached in November, 1958 which was $2,607,000.

In only two other months, October 1958 and July 1953, did the totals exceed two million dollars.

Other March permits included 31 applications for alterations which amounted to $30,-221. One new 73-unit Doelger apartment project was approved, valued at $430,950.

Four permits were given for commercial alterations which represent $114,280. Two demolitions totaling $800 have been approved.

Permits for six signs which amount to $1957 were also given.

In all a grand total of $3,-983,640 in permits were issued by the city during the month of March.

COUNCIL CONFERS WITH HIGH SCHOOL BOARD

State Mulls Jeff High Signals; 'Joint Use' Park Pact Speeded

The city council and high school board met Monday night to coordinate their joint progress for traffic signals in front of Jeff High, an agreement on water rates and well sites, the 50-year lease to the city and development of Westmoor Park, and a money-saving civic center pact on sharing recreation and cultural facilities.

City Manager George Watts and Supt. Edward Morgan informed their boards that the state is considering the installation of traffic signals at Bismark street in front of Jeff High. Watts said highway division officials have been asked to place this project with their plans for traffic lights at the School street-Mission crossing. A decision on the Bismark lights should be made in Sacramento within 45 days, Watts estimated.

Morgan said the signals were long overdue and "certainly will eliminate the hazards to students who use the crosswalk in front of the school." The crosswalk will be eliminated once the signals are expedited.

Cost of the signals will find the city paying one-third and the state two-thirds from gas tax funds, Watts said. The signals may not become a reality until early next year, however.

Trustees took under study the city's offer of considerably

Pal, Vallemar Boxers Mix Saturday Night

Daly City's Police Athletic League boxers open their 1959 season this Saturday night against the Vallemar Boys Club of Pacifica. The 14-bout program will begin at 7:30 p.m. at Daly City War Memorial building on Mission street.

John Coleman, PAL president, expects a good-sized crowd for the campaign debut of the local youngsters. Only 250 of the 900 tickets remain unsold. The bouts are an April feature of PAL's month-long fund-raising drive, which will be climaxed by PAL Week here featuring door-to-door solicitations.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for kids. All Daly Sity policemen are selling the ducats. The numbers to call for tickets are PL 5-0850 and PL 5-4212.

Head Coach Ed "Buzz" Beecher and his Daly City boxing staff have several promising mitt tossers who are returning to action after impressive starts last year.

CITY EYES ANNEXATION

1500 Homes Planned In Crocker Hills Here

Annexation plans for 86 acres in the Crocker Estate will be under discussion at a meeting, according to city manager George Watts, between himself and Crocker Estate representatives this week or next.

Watts stated that 100 acres of the estate have been purchased for development by Standard Building Company, Inc., a San Francisco firm. San Mateo county bounds 86 acres and 14 acres lie within San Francisco.

According to Watts, 1500 homes are to be built on the east of Daly City site. He said that other topics at the meeting would include a discussion of sewer lines and general improvements for the area.

Daly City has long been interested in the vast undeveloped Crocker lands for residential and much-needed industrial development.

Chandler Tells 'Library Week' Activities Here

A Sunday afternoon reception at the Mission street branch of the Daly City library will start participation here in the April 12-19 National Library Week.

According to City Librarian Samuel Chandler, a movie called "The Book" is to be shown and refreshments served. City officials have been invited and the public is welcomed.

In conjunction with the week, it is reported that over 50 posters will be displayed throughout the city and some merchants are expected to mention the week in their advertising.

Special displays will be installed in both windows of the library at 34 Park Plaza drive in Westlake and another is to occupy a window in the Hilltop Market on Mission street.

15-YEAR-OLD JEFF STUDENT STILL MISSING

A runaway boy has been reported missing by his father to the Daly City police department.

Lawrence Thomas Jones, a 15-year-old Jefferson High School student, is said to have been missing from his home at 49 Knowles avenue since a week ago Wednesday.

His father, Thomas N. Jones, said the youth left home after being reprimanded for playing hooky from school.

Lawrence was described as wearing blue jeans, a black jacket, black oxford shoes and is believed to be carrying a knapsack.

He is of medium build, five feet four inches tall, has brown hair, and one eye is blue and the other green.

Police say that he is a ward of the court and was placed on probation at the end of last month.

Your City Sales Tax and What It Does For You

(First of a series of articles submitted for publication by members of the City Council of Daly City.)

Daly City councilmen approved a local sales tax because they believed it was necessary to set aside money for long-overdue public improvements and to help relieve the property owner of his crushing tax load.

The sales tax has done both since its adoption in April of 1958.

Now the council is asking for a vote of confidence at the May 19 election when the public will decide whether the penny tax should be retained.

As the tax measure can be repealed only by the council, the election, in effect, is a "straw vote." But individual councilmen have indicated they want public support for their action which they considered vitally necessary for the city's future growth and welfare.

Their reasoning will be explored in this and subsequent articles.

When the sales tax was approved, Daly City, along with many other cities in the state, was facing a severe, two-fold problem:

1. How could money be raised to improve out-dated

ROTATION POLICY

Veteran Councilman Due Unanimous Backing in Municipal Changeover

Chairmanship of the city council will officially change hands at the April 27 regular meeting when Edward J. Dennis replaces Micheal DeBernardi as mayor of Daly City.

The mayor rotation policy was made council policy in a recent resolution. The job now has a one-year limit. Vote of the five councilmen determines the mayorship.

EDWARD DENNIS ... DC's next mayor

Inside sources believe Dennis will have unanimous council backing for the post. DeBernardi, of 172 East Vista avenue, who succeeded Joseph Verducci as mayor early last year following the election, got the job by 3-2 vote in 1958. Verducci and Francis Pacelli opposed DeBernardi's appointment to the chairmanship.

The rotation policy was another letdown for DeBernardi. Last month, the 35-year-old service station owner was replaced as a north county sanitation district director by council directive. Councilman Bob St. Clair took his place on this board.

Dennis' move into the mayor's seat represents the first time the veteran councilman has held the title.

A member of a pioneer Daly City family, Dennis, now 50, served on the council here eight years, from '44 to '48 and from '52 to '56, before he was elected again to a four-year term last year.

President of Milk Drivers Union Local 226 of San Francisco and San Mateo counties the past 13 years, Dennis was assistant mayor in 1956 and currently holds the same rank on the council.

Dennis and his wife, Hilda, and their daughter, Carolyn, 17, a Jefferson High senior, reside at 156 Mateo avenue. Edward Dennis Jr., 20, is a graduate of Jefferson and works for a local real estate firm.

CITY STUDYING WAR MEMORIAL PARKING PLAN

Two "better parking" proposals by top-of-the-hill tavern owner George Kirchhubel have prompted the city council to draft studies on their feasibility

One calls for installing some 35 diagonal off-street parking spaces by removing about half of the south-side front lawn at War Memorial building on Mission. Along with this, adjustments are being planned for better parking conditions on Alp street adjacent to War Memorial.

The council and city administration feel these added parking facilities in front of the community center would slice already heavy maintenance costs on the lawn's upkeep as well as eliminate the dearth of adequate parking space around the big building.

Kirchhubel's second idea is for some 17 diagonal parking spaces in the center of the street where Los Olivos and Los Banos avenues come together. This plan would involve the designation of each street as a one-way route, one the opposite of the other.

Both proposals will come back to the council soon for final decision.

Sanitation Board Welcomes St. Clair As New Director

Councilman Bob St. Clair became an official board member at the North County Sanitation district's regular meeting Monday.

A list of streets to be resurfaced by Daly City was received from Otis Calhoun, public works director, and it was decided that no sanitation work will be done on them.

It was noted that the Castle street project has been completed. This is a supplemental line running from Hillside to Market.

Thanks were extended to the fire department for safety apparatus received from them. The equipment included a breathing mask and hose.

Other Cities May 'Re-route' Freeway Here

Daly City officials face more than the job of making a strong stand on location of the inevitable freeway route when State Highway engineers set up public hearings here within the next two months. The actual construction of the route is believed about two years away.

First big task, according to Councilman Francis Pacelli, chairman of the city freeway committee, is to persuade north county cities — particularly South SF, Pacifica and Millbrae, that Daly City's preferred Y-T route along Junipero Serra and its east-west connection to Skyline at the Edgemar freeway, is the best course to follow.

After a north county meeting Friday in Pacifica, Pacelli, Councilman Bob St. Clair and Mayor Micheal DeBernardi, were dismayed as South City and Pacifica officials, backed by Millbrae, appeared favorable to route the south-of-Daly City freeway route west toward Skyline instead of directly south off Junipero Serra through South SF and ending in San Bruno.

Pacelli and Daly City administrators feel that if these other cities push this move to

WORK WITH JUVENILES

St. Clair Takes Job With Hillcrest Staff

City Councilman Bob St. Clair reports for work next Monday with the San Mateo County Juvenile Probation Department.

The 28-year-old 49er captain will work out of Hillcrest Juvenile Home, handling boys who have problems and need respected leadership.

St. Clair, who lives in Westlake on Ocean Grove avenue, told the newspaper he was much interested in juvenile problems and enjoys working in this field.

The lanky city official had been offered a job with the California Youth Authority by Governor Edmund "Pat" Brown. But Bob decided to stay in San Mateo County and Daly City—thus his decision to take the Hillcrest assignment.

St. Clair, one of the highest paid linemen in the National Pro League, expects "a few more good seasons" with the 49ers.

Late last year, St. Clair was invited to Hollywood for a screen test in filmdom's quest for a new Tarzan. The jungle hero role, however, was awarded a few weeks ago to Denny Miller, a UCLA football ace.

"Naturally, I was quite interested in the scope of this oportunity," St. Clair declared. "But I still figure my future is in the San Francisco area."

St Clair's previous off-season job was with Burgermeister Brewery in the public relations department as a salesman.

there, we wouldn't have purchased the homes we have," asserted McCracken in answer to city officials' point that the original plans were approved in 1956 and that "anyone should have been aware of what was going on."

McCracken and Smith, both active combat veterans of World War II, cited from personal experience that such a giant reservoir, located as it would be, would be "a dangerous menace to residents," particularly in event of earthquake.

"If it ever broke and loosened the thousands of gallons of water, it would wash out a lot of people and there are dozens of children in the area," said McCracken.

McCracken said he had called on a flood control expert to look over the site and he, too, declared it "dangerous."

"We are not saying that we shouldn't have a reservoir," he added. "We recognize one is needed. We are only requesting that it be located in a safer place so that we can remain in our present homes.

"If this isn't stopped, you'll see any number of for sale signs going up."

Smith concurred and added: "If ever that flood of water is turned loose down that hill, it will take our houses like match sticks."

"The only point of concern here is possible destruction of life," continued Smith. "I firmly believe we will be upheld in any court and I strongly feel that if we, as citizens, violently oppose the issue we can stop the city from going ahead with construction."

Numerous speakers insisted that the reservoir would be and could be ideally located on property approximately 1000 feet south of the proposed site where natural drainage to the ocean is readily available.

A detachment of Marines commanded by Lieutenant Presley N. O'Bannon raised the Stars and Stripes for the first time in any part of the old world when they captured the pirate stronghold at Derne, Tripoli, in 1805.

Skyline, the state may change its mind on the route preferred by DC officials.

This possibility would mean that instead of connecting the DC-route along Junipero Serra to the Coastside via a lateral through the undeveloped Christen lands, the state and the three mentioned cities would go for a diagonal lateral south of the DC freeway connection to Skyline. End result of this would be to "load" Skyline through Daly City with heavy Pacifica northbound traffic to San Francisco and influence the state to consider the much opposed freeway down Alemany in Westlake.

Pacelli said South City, Pacifica and Millbrae "have their own motives" for moving the freeway west and closer to Skyline, but that all the affected communities would be better off if they went for the Peninsula - south route along Junipero Serra.

"We've got to spread out this northbound freeway traffic and not congest Skyline," Pacelli said during the Pacifica meet. "If we can divide this northbound load from the coast — up Skyline and the other connecting to Junipero Serra, we can meet the problem."

Pacifica reportedly favors the South City idea of moving the freeway west to Skyline, hoping that east - west laterals from Pacifica to this north-south route will be approved by the state. South City naturally wants the freeway away from Junipero Serra because it would go through SSF territory.

Pacelli said that while the east - west laterals sought by Pacifica appeared logical, there was no guarantee the state would install them. The DC councilman cited the steep grades on existing east - west roads out of Pacifica. Pacelli thinks this fact alone would deter the state from okaying these links from Pacifica to the South City - proposed Skyline south route.

Without these east-west laterals, Pacelli feels all Pacifica traffic would jam Skyline — most of it crowding through DC and posing the possibility that the state might think the freeway should be routed through Westlake down Alemany to Skyline.

Pacelli said San Bruno was the only one of the five north county cities which appears ready to go along with the DC Y-T route and the southern extension of the Junipero Serra route down the Peninsula.

The Daly City route, which has full city backing, would go south down Junipero Serra on the west side from Alemany, in front of the golf course, then would cross over to the east side of Junipero Serra just before Mayfair Market. The route then would run to the cemeteries, cut across Junipero Serra again to the west through McKeon's proposed shopping center and move south through the undeveloped Christen lands, finally connecting to Skyline near the Edgemar freeway.

Faced with the intrusion on his proposed $30 million shopping center fronting Junipero Serra and east of St. Francis Heights, McKeon would have to relocate his shopping center, probably south of his fast-moving home development.

Pacelli said his DC committee would meet again soon with north county cities to press for a "mutually satisfactory" stand on the approaching freeways.

The city committee is awaiting a private engineering firm's report on freeway data here. Objective of this $1500 survey is to allow the city to make a factual presentation to state highway officials when showdown time comes on determination of the DC route.

City Attorney Paul Hupf is lining up speakers who will address groups and clubs throughout the city on the freeway route preferred here—to the end that the city will be united and more forceful before the state.

YOUR CITY SALES TAX and WHAT IT DOES FOR YOU

public buildings and services—particularly library, fire and police?

2. How could the property owner, chief victim of the spiraling cost of living, be given some relief from his ever-growing tax burden?

After an exhaustive study, the council decided on the penny sales tax as the best solution.

It had worked well everywhere it had been tried—and this included 90 per cent of California's cities. Even the counties were climbing on the sales tax band wagon through the Bradley-Burns Act of 1955 that allows them to split tax proceeds with their municipalities. (Now only one county in the state—San Mateo—has no county sales tax.)

The sales tax is fair, councilmen believed, because it is borne partly by non-residents, many of whom share its benefits, and least by the man with the small income.

All this was taken into consideration by Daly City's councilmen. What was of special significance to them was the fact that businessmen faced with a local sales tax were at first severely critical. But their fears that business would lag and customers would buy elsewhere proved unfounded.

Officials in the California cities having experience with a sales tax reported that residents continued buying in their "home town" and business continued to prosper. These officials also were agreeably surprised to find that cost of administering and collecting a sales tax was negligible.

Another anti-sales tax argument that the council carefully countered was that the revenues may be diverted from their original purpose. But the council adopted an ordinance providing that half the money derived from the sales tax go into a capital improvements fund. This fund cannot be used in any other way—except by a two-thirds vote of the electorate.

The other half, the council agreed, would go into the general fund, thus making possible a property tax reduction.

During the single year of its existence, Daly City's sales tax has brought in around $330,000. Half of this has been set aside for public improvements (these will be discussed in a future article). The other half was used to lower the property tax by 58 cents on each $100 assessed valuation. (This, too, will be explored later at length.)

Pro heavyweight Reuben Vargas, who soon fights second-ranked national contender Eddie Machan at the Cow Palace, is expected to be a guest at ringside.

Serra High's Bill Yaley, a partner with Palo Alto's Mike Lebner in the 10-mile national high school record and one of California's leading distance runners, will make a guest appearance on this Saturday's North Peninsula sports radio show, Prep Sports Scoop (11 a.m.) on KIBE, Program Host Warren Wyncoop announced today.

Yaley, who lives in San Bruno, will be running Saturday afternoon in San Jose at the Bellarmine Relays. His time in the mile is consistently in the low 4:20s.

Colorful Carl Reyna, for years the mascot and manager of Burlingame and Capuchino teams, will have his story told on the "Down Memory Lane" portion of Wyncoop's show.

low water rates to the high schools, a proposal linked with the city's desire to purchase well sites owned by the school district.

On the Eastmoor avenue realignment project, both bodies agreed for a quick settlement on payment. The school district spent some $16,000 on its side of the street and must pay an additional $19,000 to the city. Total work amounted to $71,953, the city and school district each committed to pay half. The job involved a two block stretch on Eastmoor east of Westmoor High near St. Francis Heights.

The Westmoor Park development and 50-year lease of the park to the city will be initiated in the upcoming fiscal budget after the city and high school district agree to the civic center pact for shared use of city and school recreation and cultural facilities.

The seven - acre Westmoor park site, bounded by Edgemont, Lincoln and Mariposa streets south of the high school, will be geared for teenagers and young adults. It will include tennis courts, handball courts, shuffleboard facilities, a lawn area, and eventually a community center.

In leasing the park to the city, the high school district will match all city money spent to develop the park and improvements. Each party must agree to the other plans. The high school district will retain title to the property.

Watts estimates that the lump cost of the initial development of the site is about $149,000, including the games courts, landscaping, drainage, and the like. The park may be ready early next year, providing both the city and school district have the money to "match" in its development.

Morgan said the school district already had spent $27,591 on the site, grading, installing curbs and gutters. The ctiy is set to match this figure, and both parties expect to appropriate additional funds in their next budgets to spearhead the park development.

Plans for the park, drafted by the public works and recreation departments in conjunction with the high school district, include a small area for small tots. The planners expect the park to be used primarily by teenagers and young adults, the latter who have small youngsters. This tots' area will allow the young parents to keep their youngsters occupied while the former are playing tennis, handball, et cetera.

The outstanding civic center agreement on joint use of the school and city recreational and cultural facilities is the climax of an idea aired a few years ago by Councilman Joseph Verducci. He was responsible for the city's economical tieup with the elementary school district for an expanded city - schools recreation program.

The city-high school agreement, which will be renewed each year, will allow the community to use the Jefferson and Westmoor high school facilities during non-school hours and the schools to utilize city facilities on the same basis.

Verducci repeated that this plan will avoid duplication of facilities and represent a substantial saving to taxpayers, at the same time giving all residents of Daly City better recreation facilities and programs.

Maintenance, equipment and insurance responsibilities are to be shared by the two entities in proportion to the use by each of the other's facilities. Personnel from the city and school district will share the supervision of these interested activities and their pay determined by the city salary scale.

City Attorney Paul Hupf read both the park and civic center agreements to the council and school officials Monday and both were agreed on basic terms. Both pacts should be finalized within the next few weeks.

Woman Claims 'Forced Into' Perversion Here

while walking on Ellis street in San Francisco, shortly after midnight.

Two men in a faded blue sedan pulled to the curb, called her by name and asked her to get in, she said.

Because the woman had never seen them before, she refused. The man on the passenger's side then got out, saying that he was a police officer and that she was wanted for investigation.

Due to the fact that the victim had been released from Corona State Prison on parole from a forgery conviction only three weeks ago, she complied, according to the police report.

Then the group drove out Mission street to the 6700 block where the man who was a passenger was let out. "He never spoke a word and I couldn't get a good look at him," the woman told Daly City authorities.

The driver next took her to a local motel and registered with her as Mr. and Mrs. Baer. She reports that during the next two hours he forced her to indulge in seven acts of perversion and made her undergo other indecent behavior.

She said "I did what he told me to, because he threatened to turn me in if I refused and that scared me."

Shortly afterwards she called police. Officer LaBruzzo found during his investigation that a Mr. and Mrs. Baer were registered at the motel in the same handwriting on three other occasions this year.

By checking with Sacramento on the registered owner of the vehicle for which the license number was given he was led to Ernest Oliver Baer, a San Francisco salesman living at 345 Taylor street.

Baer was arrested and later released on $1000 bond.

DOLLARS AND 'SENSE' FOR PAL

One of the biggest investments any and all of Daly City's 36,000 residents can make is a donation to our own Police Athletic League.

Throughout this month of April a city-wide fund campaign is being conducted to keep the PAL show on the road.

The immediate PAL goal of $5000 may sound like quite a hunk of money. But just for projection's sake, consider that if each resident of the community would give just $1 to PAL, the youth organization's treasury would be well stocked to handle program and equipment needs.

This $5000 kickoff goal is just a drop in the old bucket. PAL directors here, who have taken the biggest strides in youth work throughout Northern California, know that the job of effectively sustaining PAL's year-around activities is a matter of dollars and "sense."

All money donated is earmarked for uniforms, equipment and facilities. Nobody is making a profit in the arrangement.

The kids benefit from the lessons of team play and adult backing, while the community reaps the dividends of a sound program to keep its youngsters active in useful pursuits.

The city council, throwing its full endorsement behind PAL and its objectives, has set the week of April 20 to 26 for a door-to-door appeal for PAL funds.

Aiding PAL is a responsibility that rests entirely with the residents of Daly City. The success of the program will continue in direct proportion to the quantity of support it receives by the community as a whole.

Attack On Literature Curriculum By Mongan

Watering down the great classics of English literature is heresy, according to John Mongan, Jefferson High School principal.

In a talk to about 2500 teachers and professors in San Francisco last week, he slammed those responsible for the dilution as "presumptuous.'

"This practice has become too widely accepted," said Mongan. He continued by pointing out that the results are a loss to pupils of the insights contained in these writings.

Mongan stated that he felt the situation to be caused by an emotional instability in the teachers, their fear of adverse parent and community reactions and a misguided desire to protect students.

"Great literature," he noted, "can engage you in discussions of sex and politics which might prove frightening to class instructors."

Social studies are also effected by this attitude. In essence, he charged that pupils often are denied a full picture of historical happenings and governmental operations which has the effect of leaving them in a dangerous state of ignorance.

During a question and answer period following his talk, many of the delegates expressed their agreement but claimed that little could be done about the situation because of the attitude of school superintendents.

In answer, Mongan explained that many of these officials may be selected for their social rather than intellectual abilities. To avoid endangering their popularity they might even go so far as to abandon literature courses in favor of business English.

"This type of course has its place," Mongan said in an interview, "But literature should always remain a school's primary concern."

He pointed out that the classics are well taught in Daly City schools. He also suggested that "our system of screening superintendent candidates would serve well as a model for the nation."

In further remarks he said that he feels the best remedy for an adverse situation in the English and social science courses would be a type of parent and community cooperation.

"People should be made aware of the problems faced by teachers," he said, and suggested that the best way to do this is through parent-teacher study sessions similar to those used here.

PREPARING FOR DISASTER

Radiation Detection Course 'Lively' Here

By Con Regan

Radiation detection classes are being given to municipal employees for the first time in Daly City history.

Some 42 persons, including three local PTA women, finished the course at Firehouse Five Wednesday night with a knowledge of how to detect, measure and take preventative steps against the deadly fallout.

Their class work is done with Geiger counters and ion chambers under the direction of Robert Gisler, a science teacher at Pescadero High School.

They use these instruments, supplied by the Federal Civil Defense Administration, in conjunction with lead-shielded, radioactive cobalt.

Upon the graduation of this group it is hoped, said Phillip Brown, CD co-ordinator here, that "We can run additional classes for many more private citizens."

"Those who have this training," Brown continued, "will be needed for evacuation operations in the event of a nuclear attack."

He went on to point out that various escape routes can be followed if such a disaster strikes us. "But," Brown stated, "some of those routes may become death traps."

"Trained detection personnel must discover whether or not lethal doses have collected on the proposed paths to safety."

Brown explained that these findings would be radioed to the district directional center which would probably be located at Walnut Creek.

At that point workers will chart the information on giant maps. After analyzing the overall disaster picture, instructions concerning survivor movements would be returned to the Daly City evacuation units.

Just how much radiation make an area unsafe? According to Brown, 600 Roentgens (pronounced renkins) or more are fatal to over 95 per cent.

It has been estimated that the maximum permissible exposure under emergency conditions should not exceed 130 Roentgens.

Beyond that point, serious cell changes will result.

With a dose of up to 300 Roentgens no symptoms appear during the first and second week but come the third week and the victim feels a loss of appetite and general sickness.

Following this he is attacked by sore throat, diarrhoea, pallor, weight loss and digestive disturbances. However, his recovery is likely unless his previous health has been poor or he has suffered additional complications.

If a person is exposed to what is technically termed a "median lethal dose" of 400 Roentgens, nausea and vomiting begin immediately, stop within two hours and are followed by a week of quiet during which the person is likely to feel himself completely recovered.

This "fit as a fiddle" state ends abruptly as he suddenly finds himself feeling badly with no taste for food. Nosebleed, severe stomach cramps, rapid loss of flesh and probable death follow within four weeks.

When more than 600 Roentgens have been contacted the affected person will die in the same way within a short two weeks.

What can be done to prevent contamination? "Take cover underground," says Brown.

Under questioning about where people can go to do so, he answered that no program has been set up for this purpose. "We advise them to get in the basements of existing buildings, if possible," he remarked.

However, he admitted that no system has been set up to indicate where such potential shelters are located. If no cellar is available, then one should take cover in the ground floor of a house where 50 percent of the fallout will fail to reach him.

Best of all would be a shelter in the backyard with three feet of earth over the top. Here only two-hundredths of one percent of the bomb yield would filter to the occupants. This would almost certainly assure them, if they are out of the direct blast area, of survival.

So if the air horns on top of city hall and fire house five sound 30 quick blasts you had better seek shelter immediately. This might save you from a rather unpleasant, hasty demise.

If they sound 30 long blasts you are advised to drop everything and start running—away from Daly City.

Barbara Galindo Elevated In Municipal Ranks

Barbara Galindo, veteran city employee, has been elevated from her post as senior account clerk in the finance office to the job of secretary to the city personnel board and secretary in charge of personnel matters.

City Manager George Watts said today that he made the administrative appointment last month. Mrs. Galindo, in accepting the job, thus left the civil service ranks, according to Watts. Her salary went from $370 to $389 a month in the move.

Watts said his administrative assistant, Phil Brown, who formerly served as clerk of the personnel board, is busy with his many duties which include assisting former city buyer Bob Evans with purchasing. Evans has been moved from city hall to an office at the city's corporation yard warehouse building where he handles the buying role and supervises the warehouse operation.

Fire raced through the front bedroom of Mrs. Beulah Sanfiell's house at 864 North Mayfield last Sunday night.

Letters To The Editor

School Board Chairman Cites His Objectives

Dear Editor:

My prime interest the past five years as a Jefferson Elementary School District trustee has been to represent all of the people, not just groups, although some groups are very helpful in constructive administrative procedures such as committees to help the school board to function smoothly.

Foremost in my mind has been the children — to house them with good educational facilities and a good educational program, presented by our very capable administrators and teachers. I have been a staunch supporter for getting future sites and these schools planned and furnished so we can eliminate double sessions. I want the voters, who are actually "stockholders" in this community, to express themselves by vote.

If you recall, through my efforts and the help of Mr. James Tormey, County Superintendent of Schools; and assemblymen and senators, you will not have Friday elections any more. It is a state law that has recenly been adopted. Business people have been helped by this measure, also our voters. We now have Tuesday elections for our voters.

May I add that our non-certificated employees are a part of the good functioning of our schools and, I am sure, from our superintendent down the line of command, that it is hard to replace anyone with more sincere people than we now have employed.

This has been my aim since I have been a School Trustee.

Sincerely,
Joseph Lewkowitz

The 5th and 6th grade chorus from Colma (K-6) School, under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Hackett, will give a performance on April 27.

The Olympia School 3rd and 4th grades chorus will make its debut on May 1.

Colma Band, under the direction of Richard Snyder, will compete against other bands in the state on May 2 in San Mateo.

The chorus and band at Colma (7th & 8th) School will give a spring concert on Tuesday, May 5.

On Thursday, May 7, the chorus and band at Benjamin Franklin School will give a spring concert under the direction of Mrs. Elda Black and Mr. Harold Hastings.

George Sutter On Transport With 7th Fleet

George A. Sutter, machinist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas A. Sutter, West Moltke street, Daly City, is serving aboard the troop transport USS Navarro operating with the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The Navarro left Yokosuka, Japan, for Okinawa on March 18 as part of a four-month training tour with other units of the fleet.

A unit of Amphibious Squadron Seven, the vessel is scheduled to return to its home port, Long Beach, California, on June 11.

READY to board bus for special 17th District CCPT trip to the state capitol last week are Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie, president of James L. Snell PTA, and Mrs. H. Clifford Warner (above), the unit's busy civil defense chairman. The local pair, besides watching the state legislators in action, talked with state assemblymen on two proposed laws which, if passed, would eliminate the Broadmoor Police District. Protest of this proposed legislation has changed the mind of the author of these bills—much to the delight of Broadmoor residents who know how important their police coverage is.

Local Store Changes Candy Sale Policy

A hassle over discarded candy developed between Dubin's Men's Store and the Daly City Cigar store, according to a police report here.

Louis Dubin, owner and operator of the men's store at 6274 Mission street, declared "Dangerous and hazardous conditions" have been caused by a litter of candy on the sidewalk in front of his premises.

Police investigation showed that the items are a special type of tid-bit sold in penny lots to children by the cigar store at 6264 Mission street.

Kids bite into the goody and suck out the juice before discarding the parrafin shell. Then the sidewalk becomes slippery when the sun melts the wax.

A talk by police with Jack Shaver, owner of the cigar store, resulted in the adoption of a new policy which permits the candy to be sold only in boxes to adults.

Woman Receives Mystery Calls, Fears Threats

Disturbing phone calls have been made to the home of Mrs. Josephine McCormick at 1100 South Mayfair avenue, according to Daly City police.

Mrs. McCormick's husband was recently responsible for the apprehension of thieves who robbed a Safeway store. When the culprits were caught they threatened to "get" him, he said.

Mrs. McCormick reports that when she answers her ringing phone, a silence—broken only by heavy breathing, comes from the other end.

Jeff Elementary Expansion Still Up In The Air

Argument developed over the purchase of property for the two-classroom expansion on the Jefferson Elementary School site at the regular board of trustees' meeting Monday night. Old Jeff Annex will be torn down once the new classrooms are built at the Alemany street school.

A letter from the district attorney was read which said that land in Block 17 is "unnecessary" and that only part of Block 16 should be bought.

After many pros and cons were voiced on the subject it was decided to table the matter while the board gave consideration to property on another site.

A city request for the improvement of Colma School's Trojan Field was granted and an auditor selected for a term of two years which will cost $825 the first year and $900 the second.

A change was noted in the cost of the Vista Mar School project which involves a $1116 increase. This brings the total building cost to $482,011.78.

Approval was granted to the James Snell PTA recreation program, listed at $7628.28 while the Daly City recreation department request was deferred for more study.

Trustees voted to request the city to abandon the portion of Edgemar road which runs through the M. Pauline Brown School site. This is necessary because the road runs directly through the proposed building location.

Plans were presented by the school engineer for a temporary road which will insure access to the site. This route would run through McKeon property and his agreement to the encroachment was given on condition that the road would be removed within not more than one and a half years.

The meeting concluded with the reading of a telegram which granted the district $38,257.22 in federal aid.

"WAGON LOADS of Values" is the theme at J. C. Penney's store in Westlake as employees take part in the nation-wide firm's 57th anniversary celebration. To kick off the special promotion last week, the store was decorated in the old-time motif and employees were garbed in costumes of the early 1900s. The event runs through the first three weeks of April.

GOAL IS $90,000

Cancer Society Urges Greater Response In County-Wide Drive

More help is needed from the residents of South San Francisco, Daly City, and the Coastside to reach the $90,000 goal set for the current county-wide Cancer Society educational and fund drive.

The appeal was made today by Mrs. Albert A. Hedge, president of the San Mateo county Cancer Society.

Simultaneously, it was pointed out that the incidence of cancer deaths has increased in this county.

Mrs. Hedge urged widespread public cooperation in the all-out drive underway by a dedicated corps of 4000 volunteers who are going house-to-house.

"Not only do we need money to spur research, but we need the opportunity of leaving informative brochures with our residents to remind them that cancer can strike them, and their only protection is to become aware of the danger."

Meanwhile, comparative statistics issued by County Health Director Dr. Harold Chope, who is also a Cancer Society director, show that in 1956 there were 472 cancer deaths, and in 1957 there were 488. Figures are being compiled for 1958.

Of the total, more women died of cancer in 1957, or 246, compared to 220 in 1956. Conversely in 1956, 252 men died and in 1958 the mortality rate was 242.

Once again leukemia has been the greatest killer of children from cancer.

"This certainly proves that we aren't immune from cancer here, and we must combine our energies and understanding to promote fund-raising for research, person-to-person education to reduce needless deaths, and step-up service to ease the pain and suffering of our cancer patients," stresses Mrs. Hedge. "We need everyone's help to keep our record as the No. 1 county in the entire state to top its quota and contact its people."

Particular praise for their efforts was directed by Mrs. Hedge to the following North County and Coastside Cancer Society leaders: Mrs. Gilbert Lazzari, town chairman of South San Francisco; Mrs. George Mason and Mrs. A. J. Christian, Pacifica; Mrs. Julian Cohn, Joseph Lewkowitz, and Mrs. Gordon Dettner, Daly City; Mrs. Albert Lagomarsino, Colma; Mrs. S. Helmer, Broadmoor; Mrs. Louis J. Duncan, Brisbane; Fire Chief Curtis J. Kirby of Bayhore, and North County Division Chairman Mrs. Edna Laurel Calhan.

Others doing an outstanding job on the Coastside are Mrs. R. D. Borley, Half Moon Bay, South Coastside District Chairman; Mrs. Donald Campbell, Half Moon Bay; Mrs. Alvin S. Hatch, El Granada; Mrs. F. C. Williamson, Pescadero, district chairman; Mrs. H. Leonard Cline, La Honda, and Mrs. Charles F. Cornman, Skyline.

Ribera Praises Ram Tracksters On Radio Show

Coach Ernie Ribera was recently interviewed by Warren Wynkoop, prep sports announcer, on radio station KIBE, concerning Westmoor High School's current track team.

Ribera had high praise for both the Westmoor track program and its participating students. Special mention was given to the distance runners and Dave Dunbar in particular. Dunbar, one of the strongest runners in high school competition, is very close to the national record in the 880-yard run. He has already been clocked at 1:56 flat for the distance this year. The national record is 1:52.3. Westmoor may soon be the home of the national high school 880-yard record.

'Tipsy' Flying Penalties To Be Tougher

Legislation by Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo County has been approved by the State Assembly by a vote of 47 to 14, increasing the penalties for persons unlawfully operating an aircraft under the influence of intoxicating liquor, narcotics, or other habit-forming drugs.

Under this bill, anyone committing such an offense is subject to a fine of not more than $1000, or by imprisonment of not more than six months, or both. In addition, the court may prohibit the violator from operating an aircraft within the state for a period not exceeding one year.

Formerly, the judge could impose either the fine or imprisonment, or both, but could suspend the sentence and fine by prohibiting the operation of an aircraft for a period not exceeding one year. He could not, however, impose all three penalties.

The measure was supported by the California Aeronautics Commission and the aviation industry.

Ben Franklin School To Host 'HMS Pinafore'

Youngsters at Benjamin Franklin School are learning selections from "H.M.S. Pinafore" so that they will be familiar with the music when the delightful light opera is presented as a special children's matinee on Saturday afternoon April 25, at 1:30 o'clock.

Carl Hunter of the Benjamin Franklin faculty will play the leading role of "Rafe Rackstraw." Others in the cast, members of the Peninsula Opera Company, include: Robert Lynch, John Rietman, Helen Albertsen, John Julian, Bob Swanson and Marcia Hunt.

The Peninsula Light Opera Company was formed about 10 years ago to specialize in the production of Gilbert and Sullivan works. Some of the members of the cast have been with the company from the beginning.

Tickets may be secured from members of the Benjamin Franklin PTA Executive Board, room mothers, Mrs. Herbert Quandt, PL 6-0985, or Mrs. Edward D. Morgan, PL 6-1022.

The first Marine Corps recruiting station was at Tun Tavern in Philadelphia, Pa.

'COLLECTION' DISCREPANCIES

Francis Introduces Two Bills To Eliminate 'Loopholes' On Sales Tax

Two bills dealing with sales tax regulations have been introduced in the State Legislature by Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo County. The first measure is designed to plug existing loopholes in present laws which permit the improper collection of sales tax and is designed to insure collection by the state of all taxes collected by retailers.

"Retailers are now the state's largest tax collectors," according to Francis, who reports that more than 600 million dollars a year (nearly one-third of the state revenues) is now collected for state purposes by retailers. In addition, they collect nearly 200 million dollars which are turned over to the cities and counties.

"At the present time," Francis said, "some retailers in the state are pocketing money collected from buyers by overcharging them on sales taxes and not delivering the excess amounts to the state. This means that buyers are paying approximately 25 percent in sales tax more than they should under the law."

"This is often compounded by charging sales taxes on non-taxable items, materials, repairs, rentals and other items," he said.

"Strangely," Francis reported, "no state law presently exists which prohibits such improper practice or requires that such excess ambunts collected be paid to the state."

Francis emphatically pointed out that the overwhelming majority of retailers and merchants do not overcharge their customers on sales taxes and that they are conscientious in the collection of tax money and the payment of such money to the state. He stated that his measure is aimed only at those who are profiting by taking advantage of the loopholes in the present law.

The second measure introduced by Francis would provide compensation to retailers to cover the costs involved in collecting sales tax for the state.

In commenting on the important role retailers play in the tax collection picture, the state legislator said, "It is only fair that the retailer be compensated for the cost of collection. Several states now provide a compensation for retailers who collect sales tax."

The two bills are the outgrowth of an interim study in the field of sales tax problems. The study followed the introduction of four bills by Francis during the 1958 session of the state Legislature.

Francis declared, "In my opinion, these two bills correct the last two major inequities remaining in the sales tax collection program in this state. I have been assured the support of this legislation by those interested in all sides of the problem and hope that the legislature will act favorably upon them during the current session."

Fall-Out To Be Discussed At PTA Meet

Radiation fall-out is widely discussed. The thought of its dangers and the effect it may have on humanity comes up time and again.

Should atomic bombing experiments be conducted? How are human beings affected? Will the children of the future be defective? These and other similar questions pop up in the minds of thinking individuals.

The chief topic of discussion at the Jefferson High School PTA meeting this Thursday, April 9, will be the dangers of radiation fall-out. The meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the Jefferson Little Theater.

This all-important subject is to be discussed by a scientist, Dr. Boris Ragent. He received his doctorate in physics from the University of California and formerly worked for the Atomic Engery Commission.

All parents and friends are invited. After the speech by Dr. Ragent, there will be time to ask questions.

Refreshments will be served afterwards in the cafeteria.

Westlake Market Is Hit Again

Again the New Westlake was the victim of malicious mischief when some unknown person or persons smashed a hole in the glass of its front door.

The incident occurred on last Wednesday night and followed close upon the heels of another occurrence in which an attempt was made to remove a front window from the establishment.

According to investigating officer David Johnston there was no evidence of what type instrument caused the damage. He felt that there was a slight possibility that the two instances of destruction are related.

FOUR-DAY SPECTACLE

Lions' 'Youth Art Exhibit' To Feature Work Of Over 1000 Kids

By Mel Thayer

More than 1000 children will have entries in the Daly City-Colma Lions Youth Art Exhibit to be held in Daly City's War Memorial building on Thursday, April 16 through Sunday, April 19.

The original purpose of the first art exhibit was to create and stimulate an interest in art and to appreciate arts contribution to the enjoyment of every day living.

This year's festivities, under the direction of H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of Jefferson Elementary School District and chairman of the Lions Committee, and Mrs. Helen Cordell, art coordinator, promise to be the best ever with a greater variety of entries and more enthusiasm on the part of boys and girls than ever before.

The art exhibit is held every other year. In 1957 the grand award for the outstanding entry was won by a 5th grade class. Their entry marked the beginning of a mosaic mural which when completed will consist of seven panels and will be permanently hung on the wall of the multi-use room at Colma School.

Mrs. Iola McKeown's 6th grade class at Colma K-6 School is putting the final touches on the second panel of the mosaic for their entry this year.

Donald Knudsen's 4th grade class at Jefferson School is burning the needles at both ends to complete a stitchery mural.

Miss Eunice Wright and her 5th grade class at Woodrow Wilson School are busy firing clay animals for a three dimensional mural to be used by the children in the class for the blind. A label in braille is placed under each object of the mural and in this way those without sight will know the forms of various animals and be able to associate the forms of various animals with their names—and thus experience a form of nature and art.

Wood carvings will be the major entries from Mrs. Claire Ballou's class at Thornton School.

Sponge paintings depicting a train story and resulting from a room project will be the entry of Mrs. Marjorie Shields and her kindergarten children at Garden Village School.

Mono, wood, block, gadget, linoleum and vegetable prints will all be coming from the classes of Mrs. Hazel Colwell, 1st grade, Vista Grande; Mrs. Beatrice Maine, first grade, Westlake School, and Mrs. Mabel Vicain, 4th grade, Westlake School.

Mrs. Joanne Richards, Benjamin Franklin School, and William Briner, Colma School, seventh and eighth grade art teachers, have some wonderful surprises in store for everyone. Some of the entries from their classes include large pottery vases and figurines, crayon paintings and pictures made with glass. Some of these received high award in the National Scholastic Art Exhibit.

Mrs. Helen Cordell stated, "The Daly City-Colma Youth Art Exhibit is more than just a display of boys' and girls' work. It takes on the proportion of a child's art museum brought to our own area displaying individual as well as group entries created by our own boys' and girls' work. It takes on the proportion of a child's art museum brought to our own area displaying individual as well as group entries created by our own boys and girls."

This exhibit is designed to stimulate interest in art and because of the stimulation of previous years, children have been able to compete and win in national art competitions and can lead to children with promising talent being given art scholarships.

Every person in the area is invited to attend the exhibit between April 16 and 19 and be personally surprise, pleased, and thrilled at the creativity of these young people.

Weibel stated, "The Lions Club Youth Art Exhibit is one of the outstanding cultural activities in the community because so many of our young people have an opportunity to exhibit the products of their creative efforts. An interest in an art activity developed early in life provides a desirable outlet for excess energy."

Cal Daytimers Set Luncheon

Mrs. Jacob Bisnow announces that the California Daytimers B'nai B'rith Women will have a "Model Seder" cost luncheon at their next meeting, April 16, at noon at Forest Lodge, 266 Laguna Honda boulevard.

Mrs. Joe Jacobs, past president of the chapter, will narrate the story of "Passover."

April 17 at 8:15 p.m., an Oneg Shabbat will be given by the California Daytimers in honor of their president, Mrs. William Cohen, at the Congregation Ner Tamid, 150 Quintera street.

MRS. FRANK WILMER

DC Woman Leads Salvation Army's 3-Day Home League Conference

When nearly 1500 women gather in San Francisco on April 10, 11, and 12 for The Salvation Army Western Territory Home League Conference, it will be under the nominal leadership of Mrs. (Colonel) Frank Wilmer who resides at 802 Southgate avenue, Daly City.

Mrs. Wilmer holds the position of Territorial Home League Secretary with headquarters at 101 Valencia street, San Francisco.

Not only will the occasion mark the first time the Western Territory is holding a territorial conference of the Home League, but it will be honored by the presence of Mrs. (General) Wilfred Kitching, the international leader, who is coming all the way from London to attend.

"A chief subject under consideration during the conference," said Mrs. Wilmer, "will be the increase in juvenile delinquency. As Mrs. Kitching strongly believes the home should serve as the first bastion against children going wrong, she will certainly emphasize the point on her visit here."

The Home League is the women's organization of The Salvation Army. It was founded to provide information on health, cookery, and to emphasize the honor, dignity and responsibilities of motherhood. Its methods were adapted to fit civilized countries and primitive societies.

The conference, besides the speeches of Mrs. Kitching, will feature a Victory Banquet and a timely panel discussion in which Superior Court Judge Raymond Arata, Miss Bess Williams of the Federal Children's Bureau, and Dr. Paul Popenos of The American Institute of Family Relations will participate. Another highlight to which the public is invited will be the Pict-O-Rama, a live dramatization of the work of The Salvation Army.

Unlike many of her colleagues, Mrs. Wilmer does not come of a Salvation Army family. Before entering the service, she was a professional musician as a trombonist. Her work often brought her in contact with Salvation Army bands, and gradually the interest grew until she joined in 1920 in Roswell, New Mexico. Last year she represented the territory in the International Home League Congress in London.

JEFF HI PTA INSTALLATION THIS THURSDAY

New Jefferson High PTA officers for 1959-1960 will be installed at this week's regular meeting, Thursday, April 9, at 8 p.m. in the Jefferson Little Theater.

Mrs. Stella Jensen, a past president, will take charge of the installation ceremony.

Mrs. Dora Kusber, new president, will attend the PTA state convention in Los Angeles, on May 6, 7, 8.

Brisbane was the locale of the executive board meeting last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Ruth Weber. Mrs. Byron Jensen assisted as co-hostess.

A motion was made to hold executive board meetings in the faculty room of the high school. Next board meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 28.

A letter from City Manager George Watts indicated that a flicker type of light would be placed at the dangerous school crossing on Mission street.

A letter from educational TV station KQED, was read by secretary Roselle Reginelli, asking for PTA support.

Lawrence Washington, a brother of General George Washington, was a Marine Corps officer.

BABY SHOWER for Mrs. June Fernandez (above) at 438 Evergreen avenue was attended by 33 friends of the young woman. Her mother-in-law, Ellen, hosted the affair.

WED on March 22 at Palo Alto Unitarian Church, Brisbane's Howard Green and Katherine Hadzess of San Francisco spent their honeymoon in Carmel. Howard, who attended Jefferson High School in Daly City, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gilman. Frank King photo

Typewriters Stolen From Accountants

Four typewriters were stolen from the public accountant's office at 6767 Mission street sometime Friday night.

According to Officer Lester Bastedo, an unknown person or persons approached the establishment through a back alley, climbed to the roof on a ladded and broke a skylight to gain entry.

They carefully stacked the shattered glass in a neat pile before lowering themselves through the 12-inch by 34-inch aperature.

Once inside, they apparently loosened the bolts which held five typewriters and four adding machines to the desks.

The thieves got away with four of the typewriters, valued at $500, but left another plus four computators on the stairs because they were apparently scared away.

A man who was working late in the same building reported hearing a noise which upon investigation proved to be made by two young men who told him that they were selling magazines.

He reportedly ordered them from the building several times before they left. He described one as being about 25 years old, five feet, 11 inches tall and wearing a "loud" sport shirt and slacks. The other was about 30 years old, six feet tall and weighed a slight 140 pounds.

Westlake Festival Offers Special Record Booth For DC Teenagers

Teenagers will have a special attraction with the addition of a Record Booth at the Westlake Festival's "Hawaiian Holiday" which will run from April 30 through May 3 at Our Lady of Mercy Parish hall.

Over 1000 records from 45's 78's, long-play to albums, plus portable and table model radios, will be offered as prizes. In addition to some musical instruments, the major prize of this booth will be an RCA Hi-Fi stereophonic set.

Ed O'Donnell, who heads this booth, is ably assisted by Pete Bucciarelli and Dino Donati. Ed has lined up a popular radio and TV personality in Russ Coughlan who will be on hand to answer queries for teenagers, as well as grownups, about the music business. It will feature fancy food of every descripton, including some rare delicacies such as chocolate-covered grasshoppers, baby octopi, pickled snails, honey-covered bumble bees, fried rattlesnake meat, etc. Other "gourmet" items offered — to name but a few — will be caviar, imported cheese, antipasto, smoked fish, glazed fruit and imported candies.

Robert Hunter, chairman of the "Beachcomber," guarantees there will be something to suit every taste at his unusual booth.

ALL ARE CORDIALLY INVITED

Dick Reese Hurls Rams Past San Mateans, 5-3

Fired-up Westmoor, without a single senior in the lineup, Tuesday afternoon parlayed sharp relief pitching by junior Dick Reese, five stolen bases and a double steal into a 5-3, nine inning victory over San Mateo for the Daly City's team second straight Peninsula League win.

Coach Rod Losberger's Rams share the lead with also unbeaten Hillsdale and South San Francisco. Hillsdale and South San Francisco. Hillsdale nipped Jeff, 6-5, and South City rapped Mills, 9-5.

Burlingame, which invades Westmoor this Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock, scored a 1-0 triumph over defending champ Capuchino this week. Losberger will throw Dave Simons against the Panthers here Friday. The swift senior moundsman beat Jeff last week, 6-3.

Reese, taking over for junior Bob Goodwin in the fourth inning, bore down in the clutch and thanks to a great stop and throw by shortstop Danny O'Connor in the San Mateo ninth inning, Dick preserved the Westmoor win.

Rightfielder Barry Krohn, a soph, and junior catcher Tom McHugh each got two of Westmoor's seven hits off two Bearcat hurlers. San Mateo collected five solid hits off Goodwin and four well tagged blows off Reese.

Behind 2-0 going into the fourth, Westmoor tallied its first run as soph Billy Hix led off with a single to left, Krohn got on via a fielder's choice, Hix stole third, and McHugh followed with a line single to left chasing home Hix.

The Rams tied the count at 2-all in their sixth. Reese started it by getting on via a second base error. Hix fanned, but Reese stole second and Krohn brought Dick in with a fierce single to centerfield.

Westmoor's big three-run ninth frame featured nothing but hustle, determination and a double steal called by Losberger that virtually wrapped up the game.

McHugh got the thing going with a bloop single, followed by Dougherty's one-base drive to center. McHugh streaked all the way to third on this one, upsetting the base guardian in the process and moving Dougherty to second on the throw to third. Centerfield Bill Reynolds then laid a perfect sacrifice bunt down the third base line, McHugh steaming home, hitting the dirt safely.

O'Connor then struck out, but second sacker Jim Heick reached first on a squeeze bunt which found Dougherty sliding home and beating the pitcher's underhanded throw. Reese fanned for two outs, setting the stage for the double steal call by Losberger. Heick took off for second, with Reynolds on third, and in his confusion, the SM pitcher tried for Heick, allowing Reynolds to cross the plate with the fifth and final Ram run. Hix ended the inning by grounding out.

San Mateo managed one run in the bottom of the ninth but O'Connor's sensational backhanded stop at deep short on a ball hit by Scott killed the Bearcat rally and ended the scramble.

Reese, rapped for a single and double in that order after getting the leadoff man out, got in trouble when Hix made an error on an infield drive to put runners on first and second. Dick fanned the next Bearcat for two outs, then walked Cresci to load the sacks.

O'Connor then made his "beaut" on a stop on Scott's smash and Danny fired a long one to Dougherty to end the contest.

All three SM runs were unearned. Reese got the win and confirmed Losberger's belief that Dick could be the league's best relief pitcher.

Reese came in for Goodwin in the fourth after Bob was racked for three straight singles and the bases were full with one out. Dick got his first batter on a pop-up to Hix and the SM pitcher on a fly-out to Krohn.

With McHugh, Krohn and Terry Christman leading the plate work, and now that Hix is looking sharp at third, Westmoor is definitely a strong pennant threat. Last year the Rams won only two league games.

This season, Losberger still has a young team—but one that could take all the marbles.

BOB DOYLE'S 1-HITTER WINS FOR PAL NINE

Eleven-year-old Bob Doyle, 160 Abbot avenue, pitched one-hit ball and fanned 11 batters Friday as Daly City's Police Athletic League Braves scored a 9-3 win over a South San Francisco PAL squad.

Manager J. D. Doyle's Daly City lads belted 12 hits off the losing hurler. Rightfielder Sam Villareal slammed the game's only homer and got 3 for 4 at the plate. Herm Wickershimer, DC third baseman, got three hits in three trips.

Vince Lara got South City's lone hit. Young Doyle issued four bases on balls.

PAL Yankees Drop 14-9 Tilt To Excelsior

The PAL Yankees of Daly City lost a 14-9 decision to the Excelsior club Friday night in Parkmerced Midget League action under the lights at Excelsior park.

All but two of the winners' runs were unearned. An overthrow at first base during a bags-loaded situation resulted in four Excelsior runs. Two outfield errors by DC accounted for four more tallies and the same number came in for Excelsior on two bobbles by the DC catcher.

Excelsior got 10 hits off starter Mike Dirickson and Jim Franks. Tringali scattered 11 hits for Excelsior.

Mike Kernich, Frank O'Malley and Roger Kucich all had two hits for Daly City.

DC Coach Roger Kucich Sr. said his team was bothered a bit by the lights. It marked the first time his squad had played under the arcs.

TRIBE MUFFS OPENER

WESTMOOR JOLTS JEFF, 6-3

Westmoor High's "comeback kids" exploded for six runs in a wild sixth inning Friday here to score a first-ever Peninsula League varsity baseball victory over crosstown rival Jefferson. Final score was 6-3.

The Rams, playing without two first-stringers, pulled the win out of the fire after Jeff righthander Walt Carlson had them in check and behind 3-0 after five wind-swept frames.

Steady Dave Simons, Westmoor senior mound ace, yielded all three runs in the Indians' fourth inning. Jeff got only four hits, paced by battle-wise catcher Jerry Kennedy's double and single. First sacker Roy Reitz doubled for the Indians and Carlson got a single for Jeff's only other hits.

Coach Rod Losberger's Rams, a pennant threat for sure, got to Carlson with a powerful outburst in the sixth.

Second baseman Jim Heick led off the Ram sixth with a walk. Outfielder Ross Holmgren then hit one to the infield, but both he and Heick got to their bags when the latter upset the Jeff attempt to nail him going into second.

Shortstop Danny O'Connor, who had doubled in the third, then singled into left centerfield. Third sacker Bill Hix was hit by a pitch, bringing in Heick and reloading the sacks. Barry Krohn then slashed a Carlson fast ball to leftfield, chasing home two more Ram runs with a double.

The Westmoor assault then got hotter as Terry Christman, Bill Doughtery and Simons slapped hard singles off the tiring Carlson.

Next up, Ram catcher Eddie Walthard, playing well in place of benched Tom McHugh, sacrificed the runners along with a bunt. Carlson ended the storm by fanning Heick and getting Holmgren on a grounder from shortstop to first.

Westmoor's total of seven hits included a second inning double by Heick. All seven Ram blows were well tagged, particularly the five hits in the sixth which erased the Jeff lead and meant the ball game.

Losberger was well pleased with his teams' upsurge, particularly since centerfielder Bill Reynolds and hard-hitting McHugh were on the sidelines.

Walthard, a solidly built small catcher, played an outstanding defensive game behind the plate. The Rams are fortunate in having two good catchers, and Daly City seems to be leading the league in this department, considering Jeff's Kennedy ranks with the best catchers in the Northern California area.

Seve Mezzera, Jeff coach, thought his lads played well, claiming "any team can have a bad inning."

In other league openers Friday, Capuchino's smooth lefty Daryl Weber handcuffed San Mateo, 3-1; Hillsdale defeated Mills, 7-2, and South San Francisco nipped Burlingame, 2-1.

Westmoor traveled to San Mateo yesterday while Jeff entertained Hillsdale.

Hillsdale Nips Jeff, 6-5

LAST INNING RALLY DEALS TRIBE DEFEAT

Hillsdale got three last-inning runs here Tuesday to hand Jeff High's varsity baseball team their second defeat of the Peninsula League campaign by a count of 6-5.

Steve Mezzera's Indians travel to meet also winless Mills this Friday afternoon, followed by a game at San Mateo next Tuesday.

Hillsdale took a 3-0 lead on junior Don Staff in the third inning. Jeff picked up its first run in the last of the fourth. Walt Carlson then replaced Staff on the mound.

Then the Tribe unloaded four runs, chasing the Hillsdale starter and grabbing a 5-3 lead. First sacker Roy Reitz doubled in two Jeff runs in the big fourth. The outburst also featured singles by Vic Lewkowitz, Bob Strassburger and catcher Jerry Kennedy.

Butthe Knights, with Werner on the hill in relief, stormed back in their seventh frame. Two walks, Peters' triple, Gil Cyester's single and solid base running gave Hillsdale the win and Carlson his second charged defeat.

Hillsdale got 10 hits off the two Jeff pitchers, while the Indians managed six. J. B. Berry and Carl Keeling each had a single for the Tribe.

Both teams made two errors. Mezzera still has high hopes for his squad.

GOING for Jeff High's track and field forces this Friday afternoon here against Capuchino are distance aces (left to right) Felix Valdez (880), Joe Vaez (B's 1320), and Charles Rivera and Dan Whitney, both milers. Valdez has the second fastest half-mile time in the league so far. Vaez won the 1320 in the C division championships last year. Whitney and Rivera give Coach Bob Watt a strong one two punch in the mile.

Jeff Track Coach Can't Find Uniform For Tiny Performer

The smallest member of Jefferson High's track squad has not even toed the starting line as yet.

He's Michael Robert Watt, April 2 arrival at Mills hospital and the first son of Jeff track coach Bob Watt, San Francisco State graduate.

The proud daddy and his attractive wife, Darlyn, also have a daughter, Linda Michele, two years old. The family resides at 1581 Claremont drive, San Bruno.

Felix Valdez Sets New Jeff Mark For 880

Senior Felix Valdez broke a 22-year-old school record here Friday as his winning 880-yard romp in 1:59.8 featured Jeff High's landslide varsity track victory over Peninsula League newcomer Mills High.

Coach Bob Watt's title-minded Indian thinclads, who host Capuchino this Friday at 3:15 o'clock, rolled past Mills by a 104-9 margin. Jeff's B's won 58 2/3-53 1/3, and the Indian C's were successful, 65-21.

Valdez, whose feat Friday gave him the second quickest time for the half mile in the league, shattered the Jefferson High 880 record of 2:03 minutes, set in 1937 by Francis Olson.

Only Westmoor High sensation Dave Dunbar, a national mark threatener, has posted a quicker half-mile clocking on the Peninsula this season. Dunbar has a 1:56 to his credit, the best in Northern California prep competition. Watt thinks Valdez can work hard enough to give Dunbar a real race come league championship time.

Watt's usual 440 ace, Len Lamendola, took over for ailing John Margaroni in the sprints Friday, winning first for Jeff in the 100 in :10.5 and in the 220 at :23.1.

Jeff swept the mile as junior Dan Whitney outfooted strong Charles Rivera and Gil Moreno in that order. Whitney covered the distance in a commendable 4:42. Rivera, normally Watt's best miler, has a 4:39 mile to his credit. Both he and Whitney could be the best in the league.

Other Jeff varsity highlights Friday found Ted Sailor and Pete Garcia finishing one-two in the 440, Jim Drake winning the high hurdles, shotput and discus, Gary Molossi taking the high jump, and Art Banos capturing the low hurdles.

Jeff won the 880 relay in 1:34.1.

Joe Vaez was hottest for Jeff's B's, romping home in his favorite 1320 in 3:29. the fastest time in the league to date. Indian Art Bilkey won the 150 and 330-yard runs and anchored the winning relay unit.

For Jeff's C's, Ray Javier continued to impress by taking first in the 75 and 150 dashes and the shotput, and by anchoring the relay.

This Saturday, the Jeff cinder kids will roar in the El Cerito Relays. Watt will use a 880 unit of Ted Sailor, Gracia, Banos and Lamendola. In the distance medley, Jeff will have Rivera in the mile, Whitney in the 1320, Lamedola in the 440 and Valdez in the half-mile. Drake will enter the discus. Watt sends Banos, Drake and Gordon Kennedy in the shuttle hurdles. Penfield Jensen and Mike Pechina will go in the pole vault.

Jeff's B division distance medley unit also will compete. These boys are Vaez, Bilkey, Sal Blas and Ben Martinez.

Mateans Whip W'moor Varsity Track Squad

Westmoor High's track forces fell in all three divisions to championship contender San Mateo last Friday in the dual meet opener for both Peninsula League schools.

Coach Ernie Ribera's Rams varsity lost out, 60-53. His B's went down, 84 2/3 to 28 1/3, and the Westmoor C's were defeated, 78-8.

Dave Dunbar's :51.7 win in the 440 and Mike Joseph's first in the 100 and 220 sprints were Westmoor's top varsity efforts.

The Rams travel to Hillsdale this Friday and to the El Cerito Relays on Saturday.
